University Players Set Stage For Kaufman-Hart Comedy

Kuhl And Falknor Have Leads; Two Day Run Opens Tomorrow

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," a hilarious comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, will go on the stage of the University Auditorium Thursday and Friday nights at 8:15. Tickets may be obtained in the Well every afternoon this week from 3 to 5 upon presentation of an activity card.

The role of Sheridan Whiteside, the man who came to dinner with a middle class family in the heart of Ohio, slipped on some ice, and stayed to make a madhouse of their happy home, has been portrayed by four famous actors on the legitimate stage. Perhaps the most famous is Monty Woolley who also took the part on the screen. Alexander Woolcott played the caricature of himself for a while. Clifton Webb and Taylor Holmes also distinguished themselves in the part.

Miss Preen..... Dorothy Main
Stanley..... Bruce Siegenthaler
June Stanley..... Joanne Jones

Anderson Presents Resignation Letter At Columbus Meet

Action Clears Way For New Conference; Athletic Squads To Use Transfer Students

Bowling Green State University is no longer a member of the Ohio Conference!

At the winter meeting of the Conference, held in Columbus last Saturday, Director of Athletics Harold Anderson handed the presiding president the resignation of all Falcon athletic squads from the Conference.

This action terminates all association with the Conference that has lasted from 1933 until the present time. Although this association has provided Bowling Green with many advantages, the fact that the strength of our athletic teams, which has been increasing each year, has made it too difficult to continue scheduling athletic contests. Athletic directors at schools like Wooster, Oberlin, Denison, Wittenberg, and Ohio Northern want no part of the Bowling Green strength to mar their records and can no longer be scheduled in football at any price.

The Conference members accepted the resignation with regrets and the policy of the university in regard to athletics comes back to the school officials.

Plans for a new conference can now be renewed. Miami, Kent State and Ohio Wesleyan have already signified that they are in favor of a new association, patterned after the old Buckeye Conference.

President Frank J. Prout and the Athletic Board feel that the withdrawal from the league is necessary at this time, and that the action will mark the beginning of a new era in sports at Bowling Green.

The letter presented to the officials of the Ohio Conference Saturday was as follows:

December 5, 1942
To The Ohio Athletic Conference:
Attention: Mr. J. J. Smith, Pres.

For many years Bowling Green State University has enjoyed its

Mr. Getchell Reports To Camp Perry

Robert W. Getchell, second faculty member to be drafted, reported Thursday to Camp Perry.

He became instructor in music and director of the band and orchestra here in September after teaching last year at East Carolina Teachers' College at Greenville. He is a graduate of Cedar Falls (Iowa) State Teachers' College.

Mrs. Getchell will live with her parents in Cedar Falls, Iowa, while her husband is in the army.

Dr. Charles F. Church, former music instructor at the University, has taken over Mr. Getchell's classes and conducting duties for the remainder of the semester. He obtained his doctorate at Ohio State University last summer.

The first faculty member drafted into the army, Dr. Charles Barrell, assistant professor of political science, is a private at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Rohrbaugh And Foulkes To Play Lead Roles In First All-Campus Musical "Falling Leaves"

Ann Rohrbaugh and Larry Foulkes have been chosen to play the leads in "Falling Leaves," an all-original musical comedy to be presented in the University Auditorium January 22-23.

Miss Rohrbaugh, senior, from Napoleon, has done technical work on several University Players productions. Foulkes will be remembered for his performance in the University Players summer production, "Hay Fever."

The supporting cast includes: Edith Johnson, Louise Duffy, Phil Miles, Barbara Burridge, Olga Sonkoly, Rosalyn Rabkin, and Jack Stuber. Orval Sandusky and Bill Kiggins have been chosen to add wit and humor to the production.

The chorus will consist of Alice Brown, Joan Anderson, Wilma Larger, Mary Ellen Lytle, McDon-na Sitterle, Betty Neeb, Marge Busdicker, Jane Arthur, Ione Geisel, Ginny Dalton, Jean Pessel, Nancy Hutchinson, Joe McLaughlin, Ed Lautner, Bob Harroun, Nate Brenner, Ed Myers, Charles Hunter, Andrew Sirak, Harold Bayless, Orval Sandusky, and Bill Kiggins. The chorus will be directed by Larry Kiffer, Barbara McKinnon, and Jim Martin.

A singing group will be composed of Marge Busdicker, Jane Arthur, Ione Geisel, Ginny Dalton, and Nancy Hutchinson.

Original musical scores have been composed for the show by Olga Sonkoly, Ann Rohrbaugh, Janet Carino, Barbara Burridge, Hope McAdams, Miss Charlotte M. Skene, and Norm Knisley. Arrangements have been made with Steve Stavrides for orchestral accompaniment by the Kampus Kats. The setting of the production membership in the Ohio Athletics Conference and its association with the various member schools. During this time our inter-collegiate athletic schedules were composed almost entirely of conference opponents. However, in the past few years we have found it increasingly difficult to schedule conference teams.

During the 1942 football season we met only three conference schools in a nine game schedule. In attempting to prepare future schedules we find it almost impossible to schedule any conference teams. At least one of the teams which we met this year has indicated (Continued on page 2)

Going Home For Christmas?

Within the next week, thousands of college students will be homeward bound for the Christmas holidays. Due to gasoline rationing and tire shortage, many of these students will go home via the railroads.

As everyone knows, the railroads are doing a tremendous job of moving masses of men and materials for the war effort. This job in turn, places an acute strain on the nation's rail facilities, particularly on the passenger service. This year alone, the Pullman Company will transport some 7,000,000 troops in organized movements, and on certain days, half of the company's entire fleet of sleeping cars will be "in the service."

Take all of this military traffic, add it to the thousands of college students on their way home, the thousands of other civilian train riders engaged in essential work, and a major traffic jam is in the making.

College students could help most by not traveling during the peak period from December 15 to January 15. However, as our university dismisses classes December 18 and resumes classes January 4, we see that it will be necessary for our students to travel during this peak period.

The Association of American Colleges has therefore outlined a set of simple rules for all college students who find themselves in such a plight. They are:

1. Make Pullman reservations early. It helps railway men gauge the traffic and provide adequate facilities.
 2. Cancel Pullman tickets promptly when plans are changed. Someone else can use your accommodations and, besides, if you cancel after train departure time you can no longer get a refund.
 3. Take as little luggage as possible. There isn't room in crowded cars for peacetime paraphernalia.
 4. Accept available accommodations. You cannot always get just the accommodations you prefer or find space available on the train you usually take.
- Few restrictions have thus far been placed upon civilian travel. Therefore, if students will cooperate with the simple voluntary rules above, the railroads will be able to continue their excellent performance. Keep the tracks clear, by doing your part!—DK

Thanks To The 'Y' For Assemblies

It might be well at this time to congratulate the YMCA for the part that they are playing in seeing that the student body of Bowling Green has an occasional assembly program.

We have been in school fourteen weeks and during this time, a grand total of four assemblies have been presented. Two of these assemblies were arranged by the YMCA, one by the Assembly Committee, and one by a committee of faculty members.

Certainly the Y deserves the thanks of the student body. In the first of these programs, they brought Dr. Roy S. Burkhart, noted authority on youth problems, and today, Sherwood Eddy, the famous author and lecturer on Far Eastern affairs.

On behalf of the student body, our sincere thanks and congratulations to the YMCA. May you continue to give Bowling Green University more of the first rate programs that you have already presented!—DK

Here's a little item gleaned: It seems that four Marines were playing bridge in a hut on Wake Island. Suddenly another Leatherneck burst into the room and shouted:

"The Japs are landing a force of about 200 men down the beach!"

The four bridge-playing Marines looked at each other. Finally one said: "I'll go, I'm the dummy this hand."

Captain: "Oh good, I thought you were mad."

"Are you positive the defendant was drunk?" "No doubt about it," growled the officer.

"Why are you so certain?"

"Well," replied the officer, "I saw him put a penny in the mailbox on Fourth Street, and then look up at the clock on the city hall and scream: 'My Gawd, I've lost fourteen pounds!'"

News Of The Week...

Russia Still Chasing Nazis; Desert Battle Undecided

ON THE WORLD FRONTS:

RUSSIA. The Russian winter offensive, although slower in tempo, continued to gain ground on both the central front and northwest of Stalingrad. The Soviet forces managed to gain ground yard by yard inside the beleaguered Volga stronghold, while northwest of the city the Red army was reported tightening its hold on both banks of the Don River. Southwest of the city, German troops continued to counterattack desperately, and still maintain a grip on the northern factory suburbs, with some lines of communication apparently still intact. On the Moscow front, air-borne reinforcements stiffened the Nazi resistance to the Russian drive in that sector, although a Moscow communique revealed the battering back of twenty counterattacks and the slaying of 1000 Germans along the important Rzhnev-Vyazma railway. In northern Russia, Soviet troops continue to pound forward toward the Latvian border.

AFRICA. Strong mechanized reinforcements, and bolstered German air strength have temporarily stalled the Anglo-American advance in the Tunis area, with strong Nazi counterattacks recapturing several towns in the area. Although the advantage was reportedly only temporary, Allied heads indicated that the fight for complete control would be a stiff one. Intensive bombing raids by the Allies in the Tunis-Bizerte areas indicated that the Anglo-American air strength was increasing. The drive in Libya was intensified by a French drive which captured several key passes in South Libya, consequently threatening the Axis rear.

THE FAR EAST. The Allied troops in New Guinea have driven a threatening wedge in Jap lines between Buna village and Buna mission. The Allies have now penetrated the Jap beachhead at four places. Meanwhile, American forces on Guadalcanal continued their slow mopping up of Japanese on that island.

THE HOME FRONT. On the eve of the first anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor, the navy revealed the extent of the damage caused by the treacherous attack. Eight battleships and eleven other vessels were damaged by the 110-minute raid. The assault put out of action temporarily the bulk of the Pacific fleet.

cated that they would not schedule us again for next year, stating that they felt that we were "out of their class." Attempts to schedule numerous other conference opponents have resulted in the same response.

Thus, feeling that one of the primary returns from any athletics conference should be the meeting of member schools in all sports, and that since we have been forced to arrange our schedules primarily with non-conference teams we believe that in all fairness to the Ohio Conference and in consideration of our athletic future, we should withdraw from the Ohio Athletic Conference.

Therefore, as the chairman of the Athletic Board of Control of Bowling Green State University, I wish to respectfully submit our resignation from the Ohio Athletic Conference, to be effective immediately.

We appreciate the very valuable help and assistance which the Ohio Athletic Conference gave to us in the early years of our membership and the very pleasant relationship and rivalries which we have enjoyed with the member schools and trust that they may all be continued and even enlarged in the future. We wish also to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. George Daniel, the Commissioner of the Conference, for his untiring and unflinching efforts in the handling of his duties, not the least of which is the assigning of officials.

With every wish for continued success, from everyone connected with the athletic program at Bowling Green State University, we are Very truly yours,

Effervescent Mary Percy Has Shower and Interview

BY BETTY NEEB

Exhibiting a beautiful swan-dive into a towel and babbling forth, "Jeepers, this is a heck of a spot to be in!"—Mary Percy, blonde bundle of personality and effervescence, emerged from the showers just in time for a slated interview.

Staging a first curtain 20 years ago on April 17 in Cleveland, Ohio, Mary became the Percy's last household word while progressing from happy childhood to the college-bound graduate of Twinsburg High School.

Possessing casual naturalness and a zest for good fun, the subject of our questioning started to digress on her fall schedule at Bowling Green, which she pursues with complete relentlessness. Conscientiousness is her key-word.

Mary is a Senior in the College of Education, where she is majoring in Math and minoring in Biology. "I have the best intentions of showing the facts of figures to high school prodigies upon graduation, but if fate is kind, I will probably become a product of the business world. You see, that's what I'd really like to do."

Scoring miraculous touchdowns in the field of extra-curriculars, the amiable young Percy chalks up efforts as pledge captain of the Seven Sister Sorority, secretary of Kappa Mu Epsilon, student assistant to the social chairman, and member of both YWCA and WAA.

Mary is the gal who makes the proverbial ticking in all campus dances, for she is the agile mind behind the scheduling of all aforementioned hops. She can usually be found doing a tear-and-dash act at the last minute when lights and orchestras need a bit of touching up.

Down-to-earth people, hot-dogs, french fries are her chief obsessions, and first on her heart-parade hot fudge sundaes, steaks, and is Steve Randolph, her squire-chief and constant companion.

She turns a baby blue-green at the mention of dressing up, overly serious people, too many conventions, and alarm clocks.

Joy jumps for her when she is privileged to obey urges, such as sudden walks in the black of night, heated coke-and-bull-story session in the wee a.m.'s of the morning, and taking a quick trip someplace "just for the ride."

"I'm really going to hate taking a cap-and-gown exit from BG, because I think it is absolutely swell." Thus commented the energetic senior miss.

SCENE ON THE CAMPUS

Parties, parties, and more parties—the general opinion these days is that there are no such things as classes... People pouring into the hospital like mad, and not coming out—looks like vacation did us no end of no good... The Five Sisters and the Delhis getting on good terms again with an exchange dinner... All those uniforms floating around lately—lots and lots of happy people... That Man About The Campus, Blaine Ebert, teaching psychology classes these days... Norm Fernandez just shaking his head over that recent trip to Chicago... And we're nominating June Smith and Jane Hiltz for the buzziest kids on campus...

THINGS WE CAN DO WITHOUT

Wind—you know, the stuff that you go against all the time... Profs who make lengthy assignments during final rushing... Those same people that still can't take a little razzing in this column... Those unsocially minded people who think basketball games are childish... Those perpetual date fixer uppers... The people who make date fixer uppers necessary...

ORCHIDS TO

Elmer Brown and company for finally getting a musical started... Ann Rothenberger and Bob Huffer on their recent engagement... Paul Smythe, the new prexy of Kohl Hall... All the people who started those stock phrases, "Yeah, how can you tell, Well, how can you be sure, and Who's your buddy?", etc... They save so much valuable time... Marilyn Melam who is up and around now after her recent accident... Dr. Hayes for his fine edition, "A Wreath of Christmas Poems"...

IT'S HIGH TIME THAT

We all start dreaming of a white Christmas... You make your train reservations—the walking is going to be tough, kids... All you sorority lovelies get dates for the Inter-sorority formal... A few of us start appreciating those profs who are leaving for the armed services soon... They build some fraternity houses and men's dorms close to the girls' abodes—it's awfully cold walking those long miles these nights...

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

There comes a time when every college student should become serious about something... And this is the time... It will be necessary in the future to close the Nest during black-outs unless students behave properly... Monday night in that short period of darkness two large boxes of candy and numerous bags of potato chips disappeared from the counters... It would be too bad if it became necessary to take the trouble of closing the Nest for a few minutes, just because of the thoughtless actions of a few...

The letter, written by Brig. Gen. Claude M. Thiele of Newport News, Virginia, had followed Voltz from post to post for almost 10 months. He is with an anti-aircraft unit of the coast artillery somewhere in the Pacific.

Inter-Sorority Council Formal Grand Finale To Rush Season

BY JO TRUE

For the past twelve weeks all sorority members have been planning and toiling, struggling and saving, for all these rush activities that you've seen going on. Rush season started with a tea given by each group and for the next nine weeks informal entertainment followed. The sorority members cooked up everything from slumber parties to bridge tournaments for the pleasure of these students.

Then came the informal parties, which we think were a mixture of the cleverest ideas that we have ever seen. Because of reduced expenses and materials this year, the girls had to resort to ingenuity and materials already at hand to work with. The formal dinners during this week wound up the rush season which everyone agrees was the best all-round one ever on this campus.

And now comes the crowning event—the pledges receive their bid son Saturday and will be present at the biggest sorority function of the year—the inter-sorority formal.

Three bits of good news for the boys—the tux may remain in mothballs for a while longer 'cause the affair is semi-formal; flowers are strictly banned; and Ernie Duffield's band will give with the music.

So all prospective pledges, grab a date, pay your dollar to some inter-sorority member next Saturday, and be present at this most important affair. It's to be from nine to twelve on Saturday night in the Recreation Hall.

Grace Pietschman, vice president of Inter-sorority Council, is in charge of the event. The rest of the committee are Ione Geisel, tickets; Ann Koch, orchestra; Dorothy Fisher, refreshments; Kay Smith, refreshments, and Martha Lown, guests.

Bee Gee Quintet Seeks Double Victory Here Tonight

Sports Briefs

BY ELMER BROWN

Looking over pre-vacation basketball, we find that five quintets will appear on the local hardwood within the next week. Tonight the Falcons take on two opponents in the Men's Gym, Hillsdale of Michigan, and the Toledo Naval Training School. Looking through the old records, we find that this is the first time in the history of the University that the Falcon cagers have met in the same evening. The first Ohio Conference game will be held here on December 12, with Ashland College. Michigan Normal will invade the local court on December 15 and Wayne University of Detroit will appear here December 17.

Stan Yoder, who was to be co-captain of the Falcon eleven this past season, has brought fame to Bowling Green by being the only Ohio member of the Camp Davis, North Carolina, football team.

The swimming team suffered two losses last week when it became known that Bob Huffer and Phil Hodes will leave school in the near future. Huffer will go east to the Merchant Marine Officers' Training School, and we understand that Hodes will enlist in the Navy. Both were valuable members of the swimming team.

Joe Eubank, life guard at Centennial Terrace last summer, has reported to Coach Glander for a try at varsity swimming. Joe recently enlisted in the Marine Reserves.

Falcon Swimming Team Faces Tough Swim Schedule

Facing one of the toughest schedules in the history of swimming at this University, the Bowling Green natators are fast working into peak condition, Coach Glander stated today.

"Although the prospects for the coming season are not too bright, I have every confidence that the team can come through in fair shape," he added.

"The squad will be greatly benefited as we can use transfer students," Glander said. "Bill Booth and John Podorski will give much needed strength to the squad since we left the Ohio Conference.

"Since we are only meeting three Ohio Conference squads this year," Glander pointed out, "it seemed to me that we were greatly handicapped by the old rules."

This year, the team is facing considerable competition in the backstroke event. Paul Stark and Kenny Kost are both backstroke men of wide experience.

Other candidates for the team are: Harry Hill, free style; Phil Hodes, diving; Joe Racz, 220 yard free style; Dick Volk, 50 and 100 yard free style; Tom Stubbs, 100 yard free style. Other men out for the squad include: Bill Davenport, George Spangler, John Fisch, James Gorby, Jim Maurer, Dave Merriam, and Joe Eubank.

With practice swimming meets to be held against Findlay and Fremont High Schools Saturday and Tuesday, the tentative schedule for the rest of the year is as follows: Jan. 8, Penn, there; Jan. 9, attempts are being made for a meet here with either the University of Pittsburg or Carnegie Tech; Jan. 16, Case, here; Jan. 23, Weston Reserve, here; Jan. 29, Ohio University, there, providing Ohio U. has a swimming team; Feb. 5, either Ohio Wesleyan will meet here, or the team will go to Bloomington, Indiana, to swim against the University of Indiana; Feb. 13, a triangular meet with Wittenberg and Oberlin, here; Feb. 20, Michigan State, there; Feb. 26, Kenyon, there.

INTRAMURALS

Plan to attend the Intramural kick-off nickelodeon dance Dec. 14th from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the Rec Hall. The dance is being held in place of the regular dancing instruction class.

Real interest is being shown in the basketball tournament planned to start Dec. 16th. So far, 29 teams have signed up, with 345 men participating.

Due to the great interest shown in the Basic Rifle Instruction School, Gene Thomas has announced the opening of another section after Christmas. This course is approved by the Army, Navy, and the Marine Corp, and has the approval of the National Rifle Association of Rifle Clubs. Mr. E. N. Littleton, of Bowling Green, is in charge.

The volleyball schedule ended last Wednesday with the Five Brothers holding the treasured title. The Pika's held second place, followed by the Delhi's and Beta Gamma's.

Cagers Open With Victory

The Bowling Green basketballers, making their initial start of the season, scored an easy 57-33 win over a hapless Bluffton College quintet Thursday night.

With an impressive start in their 22 game sked, the Falcons presented a high scoring machine that led the Beavers throughout the contest. Bluffton never threatened to overtake the Anderson five as Gray, Kish, Blateric, Phillips, and Qualman consistently hit the hoop from all angles. The score at half-time was 27-15.

The large crowd of approximately 800 fans was thrilled countless times by the bewildering faking and deceptiveness of Wyndol Gray. Gray poured 32 points through the hoop, all of them from around the foul circle.

Coach Burky's squad from Bluffton were led by Captain Wenger and forward Heitz with 6 and 10 points respectively.

Perry Second Victim Of Bee Gee Quintet

Monday night the Falcons rang up their second straight victory of the season against a hopelessly outclassed Camp Perry quintet by a score of 73 to 22. Wyndol Gray led the Andersonmen with 24 points.

Substitutes were frequent and none of the starting five were in more than half of the game. Sid Otten, giant 6 ft. 11 in. center, made his first appearance of the season in an Orange and Brown uniform.

Falcon Captain

Mike Kish, Senior from Maumee, Ohio, will captain this year's varsity basketball team.

Falcon Sports For Femmes

The Table Tennis Club will hold tryouts next Monday night at 7 p.m. in the Women's Building. Ten women and ten men will be admitted to the club. All students interested are urged to tryout.

Toledo Naval And Hillsdale Invade Local Gym

Tonight for the first time in the history of the school the Falcons will play a double-header here. Several years ago under Paul Landis, the team did play two games in one evening but not in the local gym.

At 7 p.m. Toledo Naval Training School, which recently lost to Findlay 59-29, will furnish the opposition. The Falcons should ring up their three straight victory over the Naval Training team without much trouble.

However, the game with Hillsdale promises to be one of the best games of the season. Hillsdale has always been noted for a fast, aggressive team.

Not much is known of the strength of Hillsdale this season, but the Falcons will have to play their best game of the season to leave the floor with their fourth victory tucked away.

Saturday of this week brings Ashland College, led by their brilliant junior star, Barr. Barr last season was one of the leading scorers in the state and should give the Falcons plenty of trouble.

Ashland is the first member of the Ohio Conference to be met here this season. However, since Bowling Green's withdrawal from the Conference last week, it's just another game.

SPORT PERSONALITIES

The genial unassuming "rugged athlete" of the week is John Paul Stark, known to his friends as Paul. He is one of the most outstanding swimmers ever to wear the colors of the Orange and Brown.

Paul, according to birth records, first saw the light of day at an Adrian, Michigan hospital, January 28, 1922. At birth he was adopted by two charming ladies, Miss May Green, present Adrian school teacher, and Dr. Emily S. Stark noted Michigan physician. They have given both Paul and his sister Pat everything that any children could ask for.

While attending Adrian High School Paul was a six letterman in swimming and track. After graduation from high school two years ago he entered Bowling Green State University. Since entering college he has carried the colors of the school to many new honors. He had the distinction of being the only member of last year's Bee Gee swimming team to win in every backstroke event entered. He is present Ohio Conference Champ in the 150 yard backstroke.

Coach Picks All-Star Team

The 1942 football season is wrapped up in mothballs and all that remains is picking the All-Americans, All-Ohios, All-Conferences, and All-Opponents.

It is a custom as old as football itself to honor the outstanding opponent players of the year. Naturally some of the best are overlooked and this always provides fuel for the hot stove league that takes over in the winter.

This week football coach Bob Whittaker released his selections for the honorary opponent team.

Ohio Wesleyan's Battling Bishops, who recently upset Western Reserve, placed four men on the All-Opponent team. Grosse Ile and Miami heach placed three and Wayne furnished one.

Whittaker's All-Opponent Team is as follows:

L.E.	Young	Wayne
L.T.	Ensign	Ohio Wesleyan
L.G.	Diver	Miami
C.	Spurrer	Ohio Wesleyan
B.G.	Marcus	Grosse Ile
R.T.	Pizza	Miami
R.E.	Brusca	Grosse Ile
Q.B.	Watkins	Ohio Wesleyan
H.B.	Riodan	Grosse Ile
H.B.	McKinnon	Ohio Wesleyan
F.B.	Redecker	Miami

Twelve teams have entered the badminton tournament held on Mondays and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. Peg Benroth is the manager.

Girls are urged to remember that the Natatorium is open every Thursday night from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Marg Craig and Peg Benroth were presented with sweaters and emblems for participation in eight seasonal sports and two clubs, at the WAA banquet Wednesday. Dean and Mrs. A. B. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson, Miss Kay Ruh, and Miss Mooney were guests at the banquet. Miss Olga Sonkoly led the singing.

"The Coke's in"

"That's the happy greeting heard today when a new supply of Coke arrives at a cooler. Folks wait for it... wait because the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola itself. Customers smile and start moving up to pause and be refreshed.

"There's a cheerful spirit about this way of accepting wartime restrictions. Morale is high."
